

Apprenticeship to Electronics and Process Technician (m/f)

CONCENTRATION IN PLANT CONSTRUCTION AND INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING, AUTOMATION AND PROCESS ENGINEERING

RESPONSIBILITIES

As an Electronics and Process Technician you will fabricate switch panels and are responsible for internal repairs as well as commissioning entire plants. After a basic training course for all metal working jobs you will go through an extensive and concentration specific education and then work alongside our experienced specialists in the electronics and maintenance departments.

QUALIFICATIONS

- High school graduation
- Interest in electronic processes
- Clean, precise, and reliable work
- Fast comprehension, teamwork, and willingness to further your education

WE WANT YOU!

OUR OFFER:

Apprenticeships begin every September and take 4 years.

We Offer:

- Combination for success: Job opportunity and outstanding education
- Educational opportunities to the Matura
- High likelihood of a career with the worldwide ANDRITZ team
- Positive work environment
- Bonuses for exceptional work during vocational school and on the final apprenticeship exam
- Coverage of living expenses during vocational school and continued compensation payments
- Affordable housing option if you are not from the Graz area

For this position we currently offer a compensation of:

	Compensation Amount
Year 1	€ 619,36
Year 2	€ 830,45
Year 3	€ 1.124,23
Year 4	€ 1.520,14

