

Apprenticeship to Installation and Building Systems Engineering Technician (m/f)

WE WANT YOU!

RESPONSIBILITIES

As Installation and Building Systems Engineering Technician you are responsible for servicing and maintaining all heating and duct systems. You will be an expert in hydraulics, fluid mechanics, control systems, and propulsion technology. You will plan and install the appropriate ventilation, heating, sanitation, and water lines and are responsible for the drainage and disposal of exhaust gases and waste water.

QUALIFICATIONS

- High school graduation
- Basic technical understanding
- Clean, precise and reliable work
- Fast comprehension, teamwork, and willingness to further your education

OUR OFFER:

Apprenticeships begin every September and take 3 years for Installation and Building Systems Engineering Technician (m/f)

We Offer:

- Combination for success: Job opportunity and outstanding education
- Educational opportunities to the Matura
- High likelihood of a career with the worldwide ANDRITZ team
- Positive work environment
- Bonuses for exceptional work during vocational school and on the final apprenticeship exam
- Coverage of living expenses during vocational school and continued compensation payments
- Affordable housing option if you are not from the Graz area

For this position we currently offer a compensation of:

	Compensation Amount
Year 1	€ 619,36
Year 2	€ 830,45
Year 3	€ 1.124,23