

Apprenticeship to Metals Engineering Technician/Mechanical Engineering (m/f)

WE WANT YOU!

RESPONSIBILITIES

As Mechanical Engineering Technician you are responsible for the construction and testing of plant components in the workshop. After your apprenticeship you are also responsible for the on-site assembly of plants for the client. You will complete an extensive basic training period in our workshop and learn important skills like connecting machine elements, installing storage, and mounting hydraulic lines. After this you will work in our workshop along with experienced specialist to complete interesting projects all over the world.

QUALIFICATIONS

- High school graduation
- Basic technical understanding
- Clean, precise and reliable work
- Fast comprehension, teamwork, and willingness to further your education

OUR OFFER:

Apprenticeships begin every September and take 3.5 years for Metal Engineering Technician/Mechanical Engineering Technicians (m/f)

We Offer:

- Combination for success: Job opportunity and outstanding education
- Educational opportunities to the Matura
- High likelihood of a career with the worldwide ANDRITZ team
- Positive work environment
- Bonuses for exceptional work during vocational school and on the final apprenticeship exam
- Coverage of living expenses during vocational school and continued compensation payments
- Affordable housing option if you are not from the Graz area

For this position we currently offer a compensation of:

	Compensation Amount
Year 1	€ 619,36
Year 2	€ 830,45
Year 3	€ 1.124,23
Year 4	€ 1.520,14