

Apprenticeship to Metals Engineering Technician/Steel Construction (m/f)

WE WANT YOU!

RESPONSIBILITIES

As a Steel Construction Technician you are responsible for the assembly of highly loaded and exact structures. After substantial basic training where you will learn grinding, welding, reforming, etc. in our workshop you will work alongside experienced specialists to complete interesting projects all over the world.

QUALIFICATIONS

- High school graduation
- Basic technical understanding
- Clean, precise and reliable work
- Fast comprehension, teamwork, and willingness to further your education

OUR OFFER:

Apprenticeships begin every September and take 3.5 years for Metal Engineering Technician/Steel Construction Technicians (m/f)

We Offer:

- Combination for success: Job opportunity and outstanding education
- Educational opportunities to the Matura
- High likelihood of a career with the worldwide ANDRITZ team
- Positive work environment
- Bonuses for exceptional work during vocational school and on the final apprenticeship exam
- Coverage of living expenses during vocational school and continued compensation payments
- Affordable housing option if you are not from the Graz area

For this position we currently offer a compensation of:

	Compensation Amount
Year 1	€ 619,36
Year 2	€ 830,45
Year 3	€ 1.124,23
Year 4	€ 1.520,14