1. ACCEPTANCE - This purchase order must be accepted in writing by Seller. If Seller should fail to accept in writing, any conduct by Seller that recognizes the existence of a contract pertaining to the subject matter hereof shall constitute acceptance by Seller of this purchase order and all its terms and conditions. This purchase order and Buyer's purchase of the goods and/or services described herein are subject to and governed exclusively by these Standard Terms and Conditions of Purchase, which are the only terms upon which Buyer will issue a purchase order or purchase goods and services. These Standard Terms and Conditions of Purchase control, supersede and replace any and all other additional and/or different terms and conditions of Seller, and Buyer hereby objects to and rejects all such terms and conditions of Seller without further notification, unless and to the extent Buyer expressly agrees to such terms or conditions in writing. The contract between Buyer and Seller shall consist of the purchase order, these Standard Terms and Conditions of Purchase, and any detailed specifications, drawings and samples specifically incorporated by reference in the purchase order. Any reference in this purchase order to Seller's proposal is for technical purposes only and does not constitute Buyer's acceptance of any terms and conditions contained therein.

2. CANCELLATION/TERMINATION - Buyer may at its election, by delivery to Seller of written notice of termination, terminate this purchase order or any part hereof for cause if Seller (a) fails to deliver the goods or perform the services in accordance with the schedule specified in this purchase order (for any reason whatsoever), (b) fails to comply with any of the other provisions of this purchase order, (c) fails to provide Buyer, upon request, with reasonable assurances of performance, or (d) becomes insolvent or the subject of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings. In the event of such termination, Buyer shall not be liable to Seller for any amount and Seller shall be liable to Buyer for all damages sustained by Buyer by reason of the default that gave rise to termination. In addition, Buyer may cancel this purchase order in whole or in part for its own convenience, and for any reason or no reason, at any time upon written notice to Seller. In such event, Buyer will make an equitable termination payment to Seller based on the proportion of the work completed, and the actual direct costs incurred by Seller in connection with such cancellation. Such payment shall not exceed that fraction of the total purchase order price that is allocable to the work performed, and any such payment shall be subject to audit by Buyer. Following any notice of cancellation or termination, Seller shall do only such work as is necessary to preserve and protect goods and services completed or in process of completion and shall take prompt action to minimize costs which form part of any claim for a cancellation payment. Seller shall submit any such claim within 30 days after receiving notice of cancellation or termination. If any part of the goods or services is repaired or replaced or in any way re-performed under any warranty obligations, Seller's warranties for such part of products or services shall be extended for an additional one year starting from the date such repaired or replaced goods or services were accepted by Buyer. Seller agrees that all warranties of Seller on goods delivered and services rendered under this purchase order shall extend to, and be for the benefit of, Buyer and Buyer's customers.
