

NONWOVEN NEW VIBRATING COMB SOLUTION

HIGH-PERFORMANCE SOLUTION FOR EVERY SITUATION

LONG-TERM EXPERTISE

ANDRITZ solutions are based on our proven experience, and we continually innovate to meet your needs in terms of quality and productivity. Whether you have a traditional aXcess or eXcelle card, we can upgrade your existing comb with exactly the same solution as in a new machine.

EFFICIENT AND ADAPTABLE

Our new electrical system solves all the problems related to reliability, control, and start-up. Moreover, using a brushless motor significantly reduces the maintenance downtime and cost of operation.

FAST AND EFFICIENT START-UP

Our vibrating comb is pre-assembled and fully tested before shipping. We thus ensure maximum quality control, extensive traceability on each of our components, and a minimization of your downtime during installation.

ANDRITZ

ENGINEERED SUCCESS

Reduced maintenance, increased production quality

SOLUTIONS TAILORED TO YOUR NEEDS

Traditional motor combs require high level of expertise for the maintenance as well as long-term setting to secure the appropriate level of vibration.

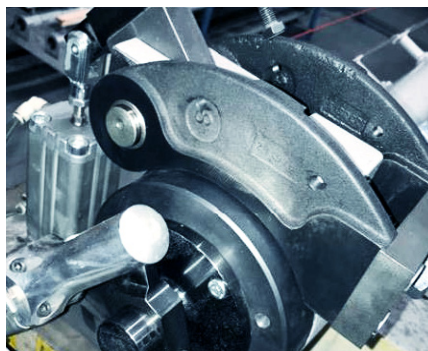

Our new solution operated by a maintenance free motor reduces drastically troubleshooting and life cycle management.

It can also be mounted on your existing comb to reduce the cost of investment and comes together with positioning actuators to allow perfect setting of the distance and removal for ease of cleaning.

BENEFITS

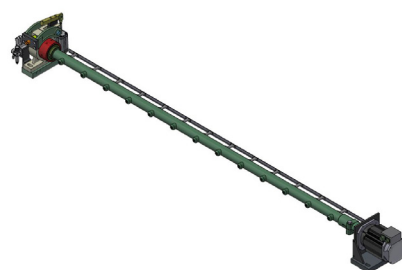

- Integrated in our continuous development plan of solutions
- Simplifies your autonomous maintenance procedure
- Brushless motor ensures less maintenance
- Reduced downtime ensures higher productivity
- Secure good results in the test runs before release
- Low installation effort and immediate operational readiness
- Long-term support and traceability on each of our parts

FOR SMOOTH OPERATION

Our new solution comes with a dedicated operation panel. This allows you to control the positioning and vibration settings in accordance with your needs, keep an eye on the environment of the comb, and verify the immediate effect.

Please contact your ANDRITZ Service Account Manager to study your case with the ANDRITZ team.
