

INTRODUCING METRIS COPILOT

AI-powered tool that monitors your machines and your processes, providing real-time insights and immediate corrective actions.

Metris Copilot puts the full weight of ANDRITZ process and machine expertise into the hands of its users.

By blending advanced technology with decades of industry knowledge, Metris Copilot provides customers with more than just data—it delivers actionable insights and practical solutions that empower them to achieve more than ever before.

Easy to communicate
in any language

Supports operators
on the job

For individual equipment, process lines,
or complete plants

"METRIS COPILOT IS LIKE A KNOWLEDGEABLE COLLEAGUE WHO IS ALWAYS AVAILABLE – 24 HOURS A DAY."

YOUR KEY COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE TO GET AHEAD

Metris Copilot is a component of ANDRITZ digitalization platform Metris. It works by accessing comprehensive technical documentation, production data, and using both, ANDRITZ expertise and customer-specific knowledge, with artificial intelligence analyzing this information instantly.

This helps our customers run their plants more efficiently and more reliably, even with fewer or less experienced personnel.

READY. SET. INSTALL.

In an industry where knowledge gaps, operator shortages, and remote locations pose significant challenges, Metris all-in-one is the ultimate holistic solution—now enhanced with Metris Copilot.
