

ANDRITZ CDV DROP FEED DRUM CHIPPER

High-performance chipping and effortless operation

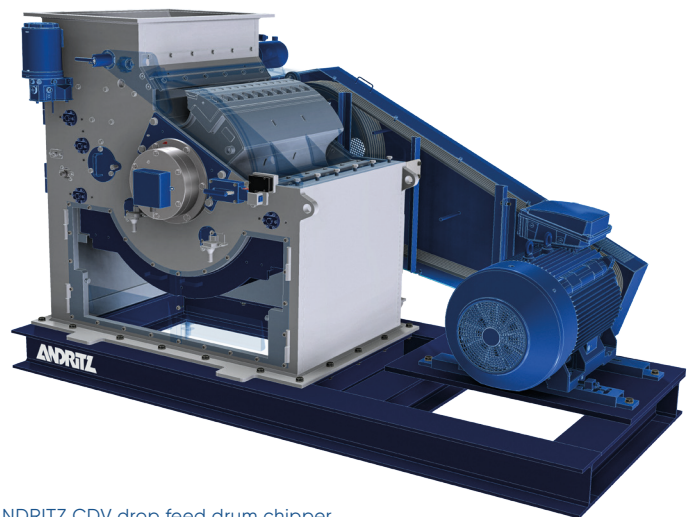

ANDRITZ drop feed drum chipper (CDV) combines proven chipping technology with a gravity-fed design to deliver high chip quality, enhanced operator safety, and easy maintenance. Compact, efficient, and easy to operate, it delivers high-performance chipping without the complexity.

FEATURES

- Capacity range: 50-120 sub m³/h
- Width range: 800-1,000 mm
- Suitable for all main wood species (softwood, hardwood, tropical hardwood), slabs, and similar materials
- Infeed material max. diameter: Ø250 mm; max. length: 1,500 mm (depending on the infeed conveyor configuration before of the chipper)
- Available with the ANDRITZ TurnKnife system or conventional re-grindable knives

Chipper drum equipped with TurnKnife TK-IV knife system

ANDRITZ CDV drop feed drum chipper

BENEFITS

- Easy maintenance with direct access to all service points
- Built-in safety features help protect the chipper from major damage
- High and consistent chip quality
- Low maintenance requirements maximize uptime
- Compact footprint and flexible installation options
- Safe and operator-friendly design
- Suitable for all main wood species