

PRESS RELEASE

Change in the ANDRITZ Executive Board

GRAZ, SEPTEMBER 22, 2026. Dietmar Heinisser has resigned from his position as a member of the ANDRITZ AG Executive Board for personal reasons, with effect from September 21, 2026. In this role, he was responsible for the Environment & Energy business area and Group Manufacturing Management.

Dietmar Heinisser joined ANDRITZ in 1997 and has held various management positions across the group in Austria, Germany, and the United States during his nearly 30 years with the company. During this time, he played a significant role in developing and substantially growing ANDRITZ's Paper Service business. He was appointed to the Executive Board in 2023.

"I regret Dietmar's departure and, on behalf of ANDRITZ, would like to thank him for his strong commitment and valuable contributions during his many years with the company and his time on the Executive Board. We respect his decision and wish him all the best for the future," says Joachim Schönbeck, President and CEO of ANDRITZ.

Until further notice, Joachim Schönbeck will assume the Executive Board responsibilities previously held by Dietmar Heinisser.
